2007 Disability Insurance Program “DIP” Rules and Regulations
Effective ~~April 1, 2019~~ July 1, 2024

1.0 Purpose

The purpose of the ~~proposed~~ Disability Insurance Program Rules and Regulations is to provide State employees and ~~administrative staff~~ DIP/RTW Representatives with access to policies currently in force and in practice with respect to the Disability Insurance Program. The ~~proposed~~ Rules and Regulations encompass and combine processes that have been developed since inception of the Disability Insurance Program.

NOTE to “Qualified Individual with a Disability” and ~~Human Resources Professionals:~~
DIP/RTW Representatives:

When medical restrictions ~~prohibit~~ forbid a “Qualified Individual with a Disability” from performing the essential functions of ~~his or her~~ the job, the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990, as amended (~~ADA~~), “ADA”, requires an employer to communicate, in an interactive process or interactive dialogue, with the Qualified Individual with a Disability to identify possible reasonable accommodations that may allow the individual to perform the job. A reasonable accommodation is often a change or modification and can include special equipment that allows the Qualified Individual with a Disability to perform the job, scheduling changes, and changes to the way work assignments are chosen or communicated. However, the employer is not required to provide an accommodation that would involve undue hardship (significant difficulty or expense) and the Qualified Individual with a Disability who receives the accommodation must still perform the essential functions of the job and meet the normal performance requirements. The employing organization and the Qualified Individual with a Disability should have an interactive dialogue to determine the appropriate accommodation based on the request from the Qualified Individual with a Disability and available options. When appropriate, the accommodation discussion should involve various accommodations that are workable. Often times multiple accommodations will be discussed ~~prior to~~ before a decision being made by the employing organization. ~~Please see Refer to~~ Section 2.0 of this regulation for the definition of a “Qualified Individual with a Disability.”

15.0 LTD Coverage

15.1 LTD benefits are paid by the DIP insurance carrier ~~and/or Administrator~~ or third-party administrator on a monthly basis directly to the claimant.

15.2 "Disability" or "disabled" during the first 24 months following the elimination period means the claimant is prevented by accidental bodily injury, sickness, mental condition, substance abuse or pregnancy from performing one or more of the essential duties of the claimant's occupation and, as a result, the claimant's current monthly earnings are less than 80% of pre-disability earnings. After the exhaustion of the first 24 months of disability, the claimant is prevented from performing one or more of the essential duties of ~~any an~~ an occupation. The claimant's failure to pass a physical examination required to maintain a license to perform the duties of the claimant's occupation alone, does not mean that the claimant has a disability.

15.3 The LTD program does not cover:

15.3.1 Disabilities not under the regular care of a ~~physician~~; health care provider;

15.3.2 Disability that is caused or contributed to by war or an act of war (declared or not);

15.3.3 Disability caused by commission of or attempt to commit a felony, or to which a contributing cause was the ~~participating~~ claimant's being engaged in an illegal occupation;

15.3.4 Disability caused by or contributed to by an intentionally self-inflicted injury, and;

15.3.5 Injury sustained as a result of doing work for pay or profit from another employer.
