

Bio for Emmanuel Jenkins
Community Relations Officer
Delaware Developmental Disabilities Council (DDC)

Emmanuel is employed by the State of Delaware, working full-time for the Delaware Developmental Disabilities Council as a Community Relations Officer.

Emmanuel serves on many Boards and Commissions, locally and nationally. He is the chair of the state of Delaware's Rehabilitation Council, the chair of the Delaware Employment First Oversight Commission, and the vice chair of the Delaware Developmental Disabilities Services Advisory Committee.

Emmanuel graduated from the Partners in Policymaking program in 2014. He recently joined the Advisory Committee for the Self-Advocacy Resource and Technical Assistance Center. He is also the chair of the National Association of Councils on Developmental Disabilities (NACDD) Self-Advocacy Committee.

After completing his LEND cohort, Emmanuel Became a LEND Faculty Member for the University of Delaware, Self-Advocacy Discipline.

Emmanuel married his wife in 2009. He is the proud father of a 17-year-old.

Emmanuel is also a motivational speaker with over 20 years of experience.

Emmanuel hopes to hold a seat in Congress.