

DELAWARE QUALITY AWARD

The Delaware Quality Award Executive Council and the University of Delaware honored the recipient of the 2009 Delaware Quality Award at the University of Delaware on February 9, 2010. This was the last Delaware Quality Award, which is being replaced by the W.L Gore Lecture Series in Management Science. The University of Delaware Lerner College of Business and Economics, announced the Lerner College of Business and Economics will be coordinating the W.L. Gore Lecture Series in Management Science, starting in the spring 2011. The lecture series will feature experts in the application of probability, statistics, and experimental design to business decision-making. The series will target participants in business, government, academia, engineering, and medicine.

